Full of MELODY.

If a Piano is full of Melody, if it will stand well in tune, if the Melody won't wear off in three months' time, it is a good Piano, if you only paid twenty-five cents for it. The price of a Piano doesn't always tell the quality. Good Pianos are often sold for very little money. It is the case now when we offer a fine New Piano for $200.

NO MARKED CHANGE.

Some West Virginia Miners Go to Work, Others Quit.

Debs is Arranging a Campaign—Relief Work Has Been Undertaken—The Arbitrators.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 20.—The strike situation shows no marked change this morning. A few of the men who struck yesterday at Fairmount went back to work, and some others came out. In the Kanawha Valley there is no change. On the Norfolk and Western, the eastern end of the district where the organizers are working, the men promise to strike tomorrow, while at the west this morning 400 more strikers went to work. The New River and West Virginia central regions are working full. Debs will speak at Riversville tonight and will spend today arranging a campaign with the organizers and local strike leaders. Shipments continue heavy and there is no apparent decrease of out-put from the maximum before the agitators began their work. In the eastern Ohio district all is quiet, orderly and idle. No effort to interfere with West Virginia coal trains has been made. Local relief work has been undertaken by members of other trades unions that are employed and no suffering has been reported, though many tables are not burdened even with necessities.

THE ARBITRATION BOARD.

PITTSBURG, July 20.—Great interest is manifested in the return to the city of the members of the interstate arbitration board tomorrow, as "true uniformity" is largely dependent upon the success attained by the members of the board in their efforts to enlist the support of the operators of their various states in the movement.

General Little wires from Philadelphia that he has had difficulty in seeing the representatives of the West Moreland coal companies in regard to the agreement, owing to their absence from the city.

L. P. McCormack, of Indiana, sent word that he had seen President Ratchford, of the mine workers, and after a talk the latter expressed himself favorably toward the uniformity agreement in the Pittsburg district.

Mr. McCormack also saw J. Smith Tally, president of the Indiana coal operators association, at Indianapolis, and secured his consent to come to Pittsburg and do what he can for uniformity. No word had been received up till last night from Edward Ridgely and Horace R. Calef, the members who went to confer with the coal operators in Illinois, but they are expected in the city tomorrow, when a general meeting of the board will be held. Reports from the Connellsville coke region say that very little coal is being shipped from that region. The miners have been receiving better pay for over a year than any other similar class of labor in the United States. The sympathy of the coke drawers and coal miners is with the bituminous coal miners in their strike, but they say that suspension of work by them will in no way benefit the striking miners cause.

The situation in the central Pennsylvania bituminous mining district, according to a telegram from Philipsburg, is dependent upon the outcome of the strike in West Virginia and Maryland. If the strike becomes general then it is thought that it will extend to the central Pennsylvania field, otherwise there will be no suspension of work.

At Barnesboro and Gallitzen the miners are out on a strike for higher wages. The operators there say there will be little to do for months following the strike, owing to the large stock being laid in. The West Moreland operators are reported as doing a land office business in coal. One operator estimated that more coal was shipped from the mines in West Moreland county last week than was sent out during the previous two months. Three fourths of this is going into the Pittsburg and western market. West Moreland coal is selling at $1.25 a ton.

The miners are arranging for a series of meetings in Pittsburg, McKeesport and other points in the district to enlist public sympathy in the strike movement. The meetings will be followed by a general appeal for aid. A private telegram from Columbus to the miners' officials states that one of the most important questions considered by the executive committee at the meeting yesterday was that of granting permission to the men to work at the mines where the operators are willing to pay the advance demanded. The committee refused to take the responsibility of deciding the question and it will be referred to a general vote of the strikers. This will take four weeks and in the meantime the strike will go on at all the mines.

A Dunbar, Pa., dispatch says the operators are shipping coal to Pittsburg and are paying a higher rate than the strikers demanded. Organizers are at work among the men, but it is not likely that they will come out.

Agents for the West Virginia operators are at Dunbar trying to secure men to take the places of the striking miners, but they are meeting with little success.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., July 20.—Through the efforts of Organizer Cameron Miller the miners at the Boyd Coal works, Haver Co. Smoke stack station and Lynn Coal works struck today and the mines are closed. These men quit last week, but returned to work when the companies granted the advance. All the mines on the Pittsburg, Virginia and Charleston road are now closed. Mr. Miller began work today in the coke region. He says that despite the announcement that not more than fifty cars of coal are being shipped from the region daily, the miners have information that a large quantity of coal is going out from the region and these shipments have become a prominent factor in the labor struggle.

FAIRMONT, W. Va., July 20.—Fifty of the strikers at Monongah went into the mines again today and ten at Clark followed their example. This move is very discouraging to the agitators headed by Eugene Debs, but a meeting will be held at Riversville this afternoon, at which they expect some encouragement. This morning twenty-five men at the O'Donnell mines came out for the second time, but their action is not one of much moment. The Watson mines, to which the organizers are devoting the utmost attention, do not as yet show any appearance of adding their men to the strikers. This morning the men went to work earlier than usual as a sign of good faith. The situation here this morning is not so encouraging to those who wish to see the miners of this district. However, Debs takes the bright side of the situation and says he expects a good meeting at Riversville this evening. "If the men at Watson will come out," he says, "the greatest strike in the history of mining will be secured."

SOVEREIGN COMING HERE.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 20.—J. R. Sovereign, president of the Knights of Labor, arrived today from Pocahontas, Va., where he spoke ten minutes to miners when the mayor by proclamation, stopped "all public meetings or assemblages of more than three persons in any public place within the corporate limits," alleging that such meetings were inimical to the public peace. President Ratchford copied the proclamation for future use. Mr. Sovereign reported to President Ratchford that 100 business men of Pocahontas apologized to him for the act of the mayor and that Col. J. S. Browning, of the Browning company, coming away on the train with Mr. Sovereign, also apologized to him for the act of the mayor. Mr. Sovereign is going to Fort Wayne, Ind., from whence, in a couple of days, he will return to the Virginias. Committees are here from Sunday Creek Valley and southern Illinois to confer privately with President Ratchford.

GOTTLIEB EPPLE.

Death of a Well Known German Citizen.

Was for Many Years a Business Man—Demise of Mrs. Lida Morrison at the St. Joe Hospital.

At 1 o'clock this morning Gottlieb Epple, of 188 Fairfield avenue, died of stomach trouble, after a lingering illness. Mr. Epple was fifty-nine years of age. He came to Fort Wayne from Germany in 1867, since which time he has been a respected citizen. He was for years in business on Fairfield avenue and he only retired a few years ago on account of failing health. Besides the widow eight sons survive him, as follows: Gottlieb, jr., Edward, William, Charlie, George, Albert, Peter and Frank. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, from the residence, and 2 o'clock from the Salem's Reformed church.

MORRISON.

Mrs. Lida A. Morrison, wife of S. M. Morrison, of Spencerville, Ohio, died last night at the St. Joe hospital, of stomach trouble. Deceased was born near New Castle, Pa., and was forty-three years of age. The remains were shipped to New Castle for interment.

THE SECRET IS OUT.

Young People Married More Than Two Years Ago.

Mr. J. W. Hosler and Miss Mary E. Byers Were Married at Mansfield, Ohio, July 3, 1895.

The friends of J. W. Hosler, the well known barber, will be surprised to learn that he is a benedict. Their surprise will be much greater, however, to know that he has been a married man for more than two years and none of his acquaintances in Fort Wayne even suspected it. Two years ago, July 3, 1895, Mr. Hosler was married at Mansfield, O., to Miss Mary E. Byers. The young couple decided to keep the marriage a secret and right well did they succeed until last Friday when for the first time Fort Wayne friends were told of the ceremony which had been performed more than two years ago. The young couple have taken up their residence in this city and today moved into rooms over Mr. Hosler's barber shop on East Main street.

ROBBERS FOILED.

Two Men Attempt to Hold Up a Bank Cashier.

He is Prepared and Calls a Gun. The Desperadoes Run, But Are Finally Captured.

COLFAX, Ill., July 20.—Two men entered McWilliams bank and placing revolvers at the head of Cashier Van Buskirk, ordered him to throw up his hands and pass over the cash. Van Buskirk was ready to meet just such an emergency as he had weapons at his command, which he raised to shoot at the intruders. The robbers did not wait but opened the door and escaped. The cashier at once ran out of the door and gave the alarm. The people on bicycles, horses, wagons, buggies and a foot followed the would-be robbers, who ran to the east of town, where they jumped into a buggy driven by two boys. They drove the horses hard until they saw that the Odell pursuers were gaining on them, when they leaped out of the buggy and made for the corn fields. Hundreds of people were soon on the scene. They surrounded the fields and after several desperate attempts to get away, the robbers were caught. Numerous shots were fired but no one was injured. The robbers were brought to town and lodged in jail to await the action of the grand jury. At a preliminary examination they gave the names of Frank W. Jackson and Harry Howard, both hailing from New York. It is supposed that they are the same persons who made two attempts to wreck the Wabash pay car between Fairbury and Forrest last Saturday.

DAY OF THEIR OWN.

Grand Army Posts Want a New Date Without the Sporting Events.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 20.—The posts of the Grand Army of the Republic of the state are taking favorable action on the proposition to observe a Sunday as Memorial day. All the posts of this city but one and a large number throughout the state have adopted a resolution which authorizes the department commander to direct that the graves be decorated next year on either the last Sunday in May or the first Sunday in June. If a majority of the posts in the state approve the resolution the department commander will follow the instruction.

Posts are being urged to indorse the proposition for the reason, as stated in the resolution, that Memorial day has been turned into a day of base ball playing, horse racing and bicycle racing. Indiana has decided to bring the question before the coming national encampment at Buffalo, and suggest that the change in the day be made in all the states.

NO ADVANCE.

Conference of Employers and Employes Results in Nothing Definite.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 19.—The joint conference of the glass bottle manufacturers and the representatives of the Glass Bottle Blowers' Association of the United States and Canada, after a three days' session, discussing a 5 per cent. advance in the wage scale for the blast of 1897-98, finally decided on making no changes. The manufacturers clearly showed that an advance could not be made because of the present business depression. Three years ago a 25 per cent. reduction was made in the wage scale, which has never been raised.

STRUCK IT RICH.

A Man Wanted for Murder is Getting Wealthy in Alaska.

ANDERSON, Ind., July 20.—Tom Reed, Anderson's former chief of police, wanted for the murder of William Boyd in an Indianapolis saloon last year, is in the Alaska gold placer country. Letters just received from him state that he has hit it rich. The letters are properly stamped and were brought down by the miners who reached San Francisco last week with the news of the wonderful find. It is thought that Reed is over in the Canadian possessions. He is known all over the central states as a pugilist and for years was a trainer of Dan Bayliff.

LAWSON LIKELY TO DIE.

"Terrible Swede" Suffering From an Attack of Typhoid Fever.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., July 20.—John Lawson, the "Terrible Swede," the Chicago bicycle rider, is dangerously sick here with typhoid fever. He was taken down one week ago, and on Saturday was not expected to live. He is now very low, and may die at any moment. The best medical attendance has been procured by Manager Fuller, of the cycle track. Lawson is unconscious, and continued to sink during the evening.

A. L. CONGER EMBARRASSED

Big Manufacturer Said to Have Suspended Payment of Obligations.

AKRON, Ohio, July 20.—It is announced that Col. A. L. Conger has suspended payment on all his obligations, suits aggregating $60,000 having been filed against him. Colonel Conger is president of the Whitman & Barnes Manufacturing company, with plants in West Pullman, Ill.; Akron, Ohio; Syracuse, N. Y., and St. Catharines, Ont., and is interested in the Pittsburg Plate Glass company and other large corporations in various parts of the country. He was for eight years a member from Ohio of the republican national executive committee. He is at present in a sanitarium in Kirksville, Mo., where he was taken after suffering from a stroke of paralysis last January. No statement of Colonel Conger's assets or liabilities can be ascertained though they will be large.

FINANCIAL AID.

The Firemen Will Help the Coal Strikers.

Although the Brotherhood Rules Prohibit the Order From Taking Part, They Come to Its Assistance in the Rescue.

PEORIA, Ill., July 20.—The following circular has just been made public:

PEORIA, Ill., July 17, 1897.
To all Subordinate Lodges:

SIRS AND BROTHERS—There is at the present time a contest being waged between labor and corporate capital that is attracting the attention of the people of the whole country, regardless of station or condition. The strike of the bituminous coal miners is under the direction of the United Mine Workers of America, in the states of Ohio, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Indiana and Illinois.

We are confident there is not a member of the brotherhood but who is in sympathy with these toilers, who are required to delve in the bowels of the earth for the fuel used on the locomotive upon which our membership earn their daily wage, and as our laws do not permit us as an organization to actively engage with them, our brother wage workers, it is our privilege, if we so will it, to give them financial aid, which will substantially assist them in maintaining themselves and families during the time they are contesting for justice, and believing that every member who is financially situated so as to contribute to the support of our fellow workmen in this, their hour of conflict, will gladly avail themselves of an opportunity, we respectfully petition each of our subordinate lodges to immediately, by voluntary contributions from individual members or in any manner deemed advisable, donate such an amount as they can afford, be it ever so little, for the benefit of the striking miners and the same be forwarded at once to our grand secretary and treasurer, Brother F. W. Arnold, who will immediately receipt for the same and forward to the proper officer designated to receive contributions on behalf of the United Mine Workers. Let your contributions be as liberal as your means will permit and your returns prompt that we may at once render some substantial assistance to our brothers in distress. Quoting the language of President Ratchford, of the United Mine Workers' association, in his official communication to me, "the prayers of an enslaved class will forever bless you, your association and your posterity." In sending contributions state that they are for the same workers.

Fraternally yours,
F. P. SARGENT, G. M.
Attest: F. W. ARNOLD,
Grand Secretary and Treasurer.

NATIONAL UNION.

The Order Opens Its Annual Session.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 20.—Already one hundred members of the senate of the National Union have arrived here to attend the annual session, which convenes today. Many of the delegates have their wives and daughters with them. Twenty-five of the thirty-three states in which the order has organizations will be represented in this convention.

Mrs. Stair, of Whitley county, who has been in the city having an operation performed for abdominal difficulties, will return home in a day or two.

The Christian Endeavor of West minster church will run an excursion to Robison park on Thursday, the 22d inst., and a big crowd is expected. The tickets are in the hands of members.

The weighing machines of the various depots were broken open last Sunday, but only a small amount of money was procured. The jobs were done by one party. It is thought, and detectives are endeavoring to run down the guilty one.

PACERS' DAY.

The Side Wheelers Have a Big Day at Detroit.

John R. Gentry and Robert J. Give Exhibitions—Some Fast Youngsters Uncovered.

DETROIT, Mich., July 20.—It was blue Monday at the Grosse Pointe race track. It was pacers' day, and the "side-wheelers," including the king, John R. Gentry, and Robert J., were expected to add a new mite to current turf history. The announcement that the pacing kings of the turf would attempt to lower their records brought out an unusually big Monday crowd, at least 4,000 people being present. In a sense the performance of the Tewksbury pair was somewhat disappointing, but when the fact is considered that neither Robert J. or John R. Gentry have had any chance for exercise, and that they are being shipped nearly every day, the performance of the pair borders on the phenomenal. The pacers reached Detroit from Montreal Saturday. During the seven days previous they had been harnessed but once. Today the string goes to Chicago, and then a jump is made to Boston.

Two favorites were overthrown, Fatchen Boy and Josephine winning in straight heats. Red Seal, the game little three year old Kansas colt, was heavily played in the auction to carry off the opening event for horses of his age. Fatchen Boy was the second choice, and won the first two heats without extending himself. The public continued to place their money on the son of Red Heart, and the judges thinking that Ervin was not out for the race, deposed him, and put up Ed Geers. R. G. Rawlings, owner of the colt, protested strongly against the action of the judges, declaring that he was out to win, and exhibited a big bunch of Red Seal tickets as proof of his intentions. Geers, however, drove the little horse. He was apparently winning hands down through the stretch, when Geers went to the bat and drove him off his feet, less than fifty yards from the wire.

Silver Chimes, by Almy Chimes, was the favorite in the early pools for the 2:20 class, but was never prominent. Josephine, who sold as the second choice, paced the race to her credit, winning each heat with a trifle left.

Robert J. did the first quarter of his exhibition mile, accompanied by a runner, in 32¼, the half in 1:04¼, the three quarters in 1:35¾, and came home the mile in 2:05¾. John R. Gentry's mile was a frost also. He made the mile in 2:04½, rating it as follows: Quarter :31¼, half 1:03½, three quarters, 1:34¼.

First race, purse, $1,500; three-year-olds, pacing: Fatchen Boy, first; Red Seal, second; Verna Scongwood, third; Miss Margaret, distanced. Time—2:13, 2:13¼, 2:11¼.

Second race, purse $1,500, 2:20 class, pacing—Josephine, first; Light Star, second; Palmyra Boy, third; Silver Chimes, fourth. Time—2:11¾, 2:10, 2:11¼. W. H. G., Wilkie Egbert, Lady Anderson, Egosen, Mojelo, McWilton, Florence and Replica also started.

Specials against time—Robert J., to beat 2:01½, lost. Time—:32¼, 1:04¼, 1:35¾, 2:05¾.

John R. Gentry, to beat 2:00¼, lost. Time—:31¼, 1:03½, 1:34¼, 2:04½.

A NEW TRUST.

It Will be Called for Short the "Syrup Trust."

Meeting of All the Leading Makers of Syrups and Jams Behind Closed Doors.

CHICAGO, July 20.—The glucose trust will have a little brother one of these days soon. He will probably be called, for short, "Syrup Trust." Last evening there was assembled at the Commercial exchange representatives of nearly all the leading makers of syrups and jams—known to the trade as "mixers"—in the country.

The meeting was held behind closed doors, but it was learned that a committee of three was appointed to confer with C. H. Matthiessen, of the glucose trust. The committee had three propositions to place before Mr. C. Matthiessen. Naturally, the one of most importance had to do with his future plans of dealing with the "mixers." The committee met Mr. Matthiessen but he was noncommittal. "Wait until after Aug 1st," said he, "and I will be able to talk with you."

He had only reached Chicago, he explained, and had not yet got well settled in his new possessions. Indeed, the factories would not be operated by his association until after August 1, and so he could not be expected to say what he would do until after that. The committee, which comprised John W. Bradshaw, of Chicago, P. J. Towle, of St. Paul and Mr. Winterman of St. Louis, reported back to the meeting the result of their conference. After some debate the delegates decided they would take no action towards forming an association until they knew what Mr. Matthiessen's intentions were. So the meeting was adjourned, to be reconvened in August at the call of the chairman, C. B. Rose, of Kansas City.

A Cloud Burst.

PITTSBURG, July 20.—A cloud burst near Carnegie last night damaged property to the extent of $25,000. At the Pan Handle tracks of M. A. Hanna & Co. the powder storehouse, railroad tracks and carts were washed away. The water rose so rapidly that the miners were forced to flee for safety.

UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Judge Fox, of Richmond, So Declares the Law.

Against Convict Made Goods Passed by the Last Legislature. Will be Appealed.

RICHMOND, Ind., July 20.—Judge Fox, of the Wayne county circuit court, today declared unconstitutional the Indiana statute of 1895 providing that no convict made goods from other states can be sold without a state license and bond of $5,000. The law also required that the goods be labeled, "Convict Made."

The case of Wm. H. Porter, salesman for the Frankfort Chair company, will be carried to the supreme court.

STORIES ARE TRUE

Of the Richness in the New Diggings of Alaska.

Big Yields of Gold From the Klondike Last Winter—Immense Yield in British Yukon.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 20.—Hon. C. H. McIntosh, governor of the Northwest territory, in which is included the far-famed Klondyke district, is in Seattle. The governor freely subscribed to the truthful ness of the stories sent out as to the richness of the new diggings. He estimates that the Klondyke and its tributaries yielded over $2,000,000 in gold last winter. Of this amount he says $2,000,000 and upwards came via the steamships Portland and Excelsior. More than a million dollars in dust, he says, is now stored away in the cabins of miners along the creek being developed.

"The British Yukon yield of gold for 1897," he resumed, "will not be less than $10,000,000." He says surveyors are now at work trying to ascertain the feasibility of the construction of a railroad into the Yukon. One route contemplates a line of steamers from Fort Wrangle up the Stiken river.

Distinguished People Dead.

LONDON, July 20.—Miss Jean Ingelow, the distinguished poet and novelist, died in London last night. She was in her seventy-seventh year. Sir John Charles Bucknill, one of the founders of the volunteer movement of 1859, is dead. He was in his eightieth year.

Miss Annie Boland, housekeeper at the McKinnie house, has gone to Oswego, N. Y., to visit her aunt, Mrs. Eliza Redding, formerly of this city.

Albert Brosseur, of Hartford City, who has been in the city for several weeks on account of having an operation performed, was able to return to his home last evening.

Among the guests at the Randall: Louis Allen, Maurice Levy, New York; J. J. Gilbert, R. Harrell, J. A. Elmslie, Chicago; William T. Mug, Lafayette; E. L. Dunlap, Sandusky, Ohio; J. W. Coleman, Warsaw; H. A. Dodge, Montpelier; J. S. Fiske, Cincinnati; L. H. Price, Akron, Ohio.

The new feature of holding out door services as inaugurated by Rev. Johnson, of Simpson M. E. church, has met the popular approval of the congregation and friends of the church. The services last Sunday evening attracted a large audience and Williams grove never contained a more orderly gathering. The arrangement of seats is such that there is no difficulty in hearing what is said. Mr. Johnson has to ...

POLICE PICKINGS.

Rose and Ada Fisher Arraigned in Police Court.

John Partwood and Edward McElish Found in Their Company—Tin Can Annie Bobs Up Anew.

Rose Fisher and her young sister, Ada, were prisoners at police court this morning on the charge of prostitution. John Partwood, a burly blacksmith, and Edward McElish, recently emerged from knee pants, were also prisoners for associating with the women. The two sisters, whose true name is McDonald, not Fisher, have been traveling down the highway of sin at a lively gait, until their actions aroused the indignation of neighbors, and caused the officers to make a descent on their domicile, corner of St. Marys avenue and Hoffman street last night. The raid was made by Sergeant Harkenrider, and Officers Knock and Rohrer. Mayor Scherer assessed a fine of $10 and costs in each of the four cases. The mother of young McElish, was on hand to pay his fine but the youth spurned the offer and went to jail with the rest. The Humane society will probably take up the case of the young Fisher woman and send her to the Door of Hope. They have already placed a younger child of the family in the orphans' home.

OTHER CASES.

William James and his wife, the latter being better known by the name of "Tin Can Annie," were arrested by Officer Pappert last night at their home on Fairfield avenue, near Williams street. They were both drunk. Mrs. James this morning haughtily declined to answer the questions but by Deputy Prosecutor Thomas, and the mayor fined her $5 and costs. Her husband got $1 and costs, and both went to jail.

G. Wilson, for drunkenness, went to jail for eleven days. He was arrested by Officer Paul.

A couple of young fellows hired a rig at Kiefmeller's livery stable last night. Early this morning an officer picked up the outfit where it had been abandoned by the sporty boys.

F. W. Lloyd reports that he lost a draft payable to himself in the sum of $25.

A youth named Fred. Mayers was locked up by Lieutenant Lapp yesterday on the charge of stealing a bicycle from Black Katt. It is alleged that he rented the wheel and then sold it for $5. He was bound over in the sum of $200, in default which he went to jail.

BOAT UPSET.

Four Young Men Get a Ducking at Rome City.

Anna Eiter Severely Burned—F. J. Cunningham's Child Injured—Russell Flagle's Fall—Mishaps.

Last Sunday, at Rome City, a party of Fort Wayne young men, Messrs. Carl Babb, Louis Schulthers, Louis Monroe and Phil Conway, while boating, got in the way of the big waves of the steamer and the boat was capsized. All of the boys could swim except Schulthers, who was rescued by his companions.

BADLY BURNED.

Miss Anna, the fifteen year old daughter of Henry Eiter, of No. 10 Hough street, was severely burned about the limbs, neck and face, yesterday. While working around the stove her clothing caught fire. The young lady fainted with fright and pain and the flames were not extinguished until they had wrought serious injury. Dr. McCausland says the unfortunate victim will recover.

OTHER MISHAPS.

There was a gas explosion at the home of George Hoffman, 230 Hanna street, Sunday afternoon, the accident being caused by an open valve. Slight damage was done to the house.

Charles Newman, a farmer, was driving on East Wayne street yesterday, when his team took fright and ran away. Mr. Newman was thrown out and slightly injured. The team was stopped before serious damage was done.

Mrs. J. C. Meyer, of East Washington street, suffers from a sprained ankle, as a result of falling from a porch.

The two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Cunningham, of Baker street, fell at noon today, cutting her nose and face badly upon the sharp edge of a cuspidor. A surgeon had to be called to attend the little sufferer.

Russell Flagle, living on Third street, Bloomingdale, was riding a horse on Cass street this morning, when the animal slipped on the street car track and pitched the young man to the pavement. His ankle was fractured and he was seriously bruised.

FOUND A CORPSE.

Ghastly Discovery Made by Mrs. Lehman.

Body of William Hilgeman, the Carpenter, Found in the Canal Near the Power Station.

About 11 o'clock this morning Mrs. Lehman, whose home is on Randolph street, back of the Jenney electric power station, was working in her yard when in glancing over toward the power station reservoir she discovered what she took to be the head of a corpse. Upon going closer to the spot her suspicions were verified. She could distinctly make out the features of an old man, whose bloodless face was considerably discolored and apparently bruised. The current turned the body over and to her horror stricken gaze was presented

A GHASTLY WOUND.

Under the left eye, from which blood had flowed and left its scarlet trail down the side of the face. The woman gave the alarm that hastened to the scene several workmen from the power station. They did not try to remove the body until the arrival of Coroner Kappel and Undertaker Peltier. The corpse was then taken from the water. The features were those of a man probably sixty-five years of age. The face was so besmeared with blood that it seemed apparent enough that murder most foul had been done, there being a deep and ugly cut under the eye and a gash back of the left ear. The body was removed to Peltier's where Coroner Kappel examined the pockets, finding only a one-cent piece. There was not even a scrap of paper by which identification might be established. Sheriff Melching was summoned and he thought he

RECOGNIZED THE BODY

As that of William Hilgeman, an old German citizen residing at 111 Wall street. He sent for Fred C. Paul, who is a neighbor of Hilgeman's, and he immediately identified the remains as those of William Hilgeman. There was

A MYSTERY IN THE DEATH

Which the sheriff and the coroner proceeded to clear up. They learned from Mr. Paul that Mr. Hilgeman had lived happily at home and that he had no reason to commit suicide. They also learned that he seldom carried an amount of money that would make him the object of footpads' attacks. The strange actions of the old man at frequent intervals within the past year led many to think that he was not wholly responsible on such occasions. All these facts put together caused the investigators to conclude that Mr. Hilgeman wandered away

AND FELL IN THE WATER

While walking close to the edge of the bank that surrounds the reservoir. This theory is easily accepted. The wounds do not prove foul play as they might easily have been inflicted by striking a stone or sharp object as the body went to the bottom of the shallow water.

WHEN HE LEFT HOME.

Last evening Mr. Hilgeman left home at 7 o'clock, telling a neighbor that he was going to take a walk to Swinney park. It was not his custom to leave the house at this hour, and in fact he seldom went away after supper. His actions, when last seen alive by friends and by his wife, did not betray any designs to end his own life.

NOTIFYING THE WIDOW.

The news was conveyed to Mrs. Hilgeman and she was greatly overcome by grief. She will not believe that her husband committed suicide and is convinced that his death was wholly due to falling into the reservoir accidentally. At her instructions the body was prepared for burial by Undertakers Scheumann & Klaehn. The deceased was fifty-five years old. He was for years a prominent carpenter, but had not done much at his trade of late years.

WAS DESPONDENT.

Loss of Employment Caused Otto Nicholls to Commit Suicide.

Further investigation of the suicide of Otto S. Nicholls, an account of which appeared in The Sentinel yesterday reveals the fact that the act was prompted by loss of employment. He had been working for Cooney Bayer at his trade of cigar making, but lost his job. This caused him to become despondent. He purchased laudanum and took the fatal dose while his family was in another room. Deceased was thirty-one years old and leaves a widow and one child.

According to reports received by the Purdue experimental station during the early part of this month, we are safe in saying that there is probably more swine disease in the state now than at any corresponding period in recent years. This must be taken as an indication of severe loss to follow later in the season and it should be a warning to farmers to exercise more than usual care to prevent loss.

Borneo has a unique way of settling differences that would in so called civilized countries lead to litigation. When two persons have a dispute each is provided with a little lump of salt of the same size. The lumps are dropped simultaneously into water. The one whose lump of salt dissolves first is adjudged to be in the wrong.

Merkel is responsible for this observation: "Ordinary people regard a man of a certain force and nobility of character as they do a lion. They look at him with a sort of wonder—perhaps they admire him, but they will on no account house with him. The lapdog who wags his tail, licks the hand, and cringes at the nod of every stranger is a much more acceptable companion to them."

The supreme court of Michigan has decided that a newspaper editor is not a laborer. Presumably this means that the editor don't work. It would be interesting to see the Michigan supreme judges try to get out an eight or twelve page paper with a street fight, a Sunday school excursion, a false fire alarm, two funerals and a wedding and make the people think that the town's awhirl with excitement. They'd either work sixteen hours a day or lose their job and at the very first opportunity thereafter they'd give the plaintiff editor a first lien not only on the newspaper plant but on two or three buildings adjoining.

Longfellow once wrote: "The talent of success is nothing more than doing what you can well and doing well whatever you do, without a thought of fame." The great poet exemplified these words in his own life. Do you think that when he wrote "Evangeline" or "Hiawatha," or any of his great poems, that a desire to achieve fame was his highest motive? We do not believe it. His life was proof of the fact that there was something higher and stronger and better than a mere love of fame back of the inspiration that gave to the world Longfellow's noble poems. He did his best in all his work and when he did this he did no more than a blacksmith does when he makes the very best horse shoe it is possible for him to make. To do one's best is to have the mark of God's approval set upon one's work.

Blaine and Logan.

The proposed dedication of a monument to General John A. Logan has served to recall for a moment the name of James G. Blaine, with whom General Logan was associated on the republican national ticket of 1884. Then a million voices proclaimed "Blaine and Logan;" then countless banners waved, and innumerable pennons fluttered, giving the free winds the names "Blaine and Logan," always Blaine first. He, the candidate of a great party for the office of president of the United States, the highest place in the gift of the American people. The other for the second place, the almost humble post of vice president. And, while both in their respective ways were distinguished men, no one would have thought of reversing their positions and making the ticket read: For president, Logan; for vice president, Blaine. Yet now the second man is to be honored by a stately monument, while the first man sleeps on at the foot of a blasted tree in a Washington cemetery, with but the plainest stone and briefest epitaph to mark the half forgotten place.

The seeming final judgments of mankind are past understanding or finding out. The verdicts that are rendered after men are dead are really inscrutable. In life there was no question as to the relative position of the two men in the fields in which they both contested, where they met with the opportunity of comparison. It was not an accident which placed Blaine's name first and Logan's second—it was a deliberate judgment. In congress, where both served in both branches, there was no thought save of the pre-eminence of Blaine. For that matter, in the extent of his knowledge drawn from study and experience, his readiness in attack and defense, his astonishing memory, not of certain events and authorities, but of everything in his powers, as they might be called, of both conciliation and aggression, in his command of the admiration of both friend and foe, there have been few men in all our history like James G. Blaine. Yet for him no monument is raised, nor commemorative tablet, nor votive statue.

The reason of this apparent discrimination against Blaine and in favor of Logan is to be found, it may be believed, in the fact that Logan was a soldier of his country, while Blaine was not. The same discrimination, if it may be called that, exists in all countries that build sepulchres or raise monuments. In London anybody can point out some memorial of the Duke of Wellington, while not one man in a thousand can show any outward or visible sign that England remembers that Pitt or Fox or Burke ever lived. It is not alone our own way of forgetting and remembering, it is the way of the world.

General Logan will be remembered as a soldier. His monument will be a soldiers' monument and this is not unjust and there is no complaint. No braver man ever wore a sword. No harder commander ever rallied the faltering or led on the cheering, charging line. Let the brave chieftain be remembered. But the other—it is with the mention of his name that there falls the shadow and comes the mystery. How, after the "Thirty Years," whose story he so brilliantly told; how, after the days when he controlled one of the great legislative bodies of the world; how, after so many thronging thousands listened to his words; how, after councils led and treaties made and policies shaped and dictated; how, after shining so long in the circle of the greatest, can he fade into dust and ashes and be forgotten?—Kansas City Star.

WORK OF CHARITY.

A Resume of the Big Conference at Toronto, Canada.

Delegates From Mexico and the United States—Fort Wayne Had a Prominent Position at the Conference.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., July 19, '97.

To the Editor of THE SENTINEL.

The twenty-fourth national conference of charities and correction held at Toronto, Ontario, July 7 to 14 inclusive, deserves more notice than the routine work as detailed by the press associations. The attendance of so many persons deeply interested in philanthropic and benevolent work and sociological research certainly proves that much interest is being manifested in the present social condition and environments of the people and the country. The delegates embraced men and women of high standing—doctors, ministers, professors in universities, superintendents of the largest and best known benevolent and corrective institutions in the country. The international character of the convention was also shown by the presence of delegates from all parts of the dominion of Canada and from Mexico. President Diaz, of the last named country, sent a special representative to the conference, thus showing the interest manifested in this work by our neighbors in the south.

The real work of the conference was done in the section meetings, two of which were held each day. A section was devoted to charity organization, others to child saving, juvenile reformatories, county and municipal charities, prison reform, care of the insane and epileptics, care of the feeble minded. At these meetings papers were read by persons thoroughly versed in the work, and then ample opportunity was afforded for discussion of each subject presented. The section meetings were in reality a school in which all the attendants felt free to bring forward such points as presented themselves in their daily work and secure the advice and counsel of some of the most noted workers in the country. The delegates were given full opportunity to learn of the work of others in these lines of charitable and sociological endeavor and then were enabled to judge whether or not they were meeting the full requirements in their own line.

General sessions on these and kindred topics were also held, at which most able addresses and papers were presented. Especially interesting were the sessions devoted to social settlements. Miss Jane Addams, of Hull house, Chicago, was in attendance at the meeting, and the genuine ovation with which her every appearance on the platform was greeted, emphasized and verified the statement made recently by some writer that there is "just one Jane Addams in the world."

Another striking feature of the conference was its non sectarianism. Jew and Gentile, Protestant and Catholic, all met on a common platform—that of an earnest endeavor to elevate humanity, and all mingled as members of one family. Magnificent papers were read by all these, and from the tenor of the articles, it would have been simply impossible for the layman to have recognized faith or creed.

Fort Wayne occupied a prominent position in the conference. Mr. Alexander Johnson, the president of the conference, most admirably filled the position and guided the program to completion with a master hand. He was a favorite with the members of the conference and the address delivered in the opening of the convention was one of the best of the session. He remains a member of the executive committee of the conference and his counsels and work will be of great value. Hon. T. E. Ellison not only read an admirable paper on "Prison Reform in Indiana" before one of the section meetings, but made such a favorable impression among the delegates that he was unanimously chosen one of the vice presidents for the ensuing year. Mesdames S. M. Foster, T. E. Ellison, Alexander Johnson, matron I. S. F. M. Y.; J. B. Harper, trustee I. S. F. M. Y.; Ida Overmeyer, matron Allen county Orphans' Home, also took active part in the conference.

The attendance was very large, more than 400 persons having registered. When it is considered that many of these persons came from the most remote parts of the country, it can readily be seen that they must be interested in their great work. The conference certainly is a great medium for the interchange of opinions between workers in this field of benevolence which is now commanding the attention of so many of the brightest minds among our men and women. Its labors must be productive of good results, and as the public generally learn more of the new methods that are being applied to the solution of these social questions they will give them more and more their support and adherence. DOOR OF HOPE.

Annual Meeting of the Board of Managers—Home Proves to be Much Needed.

At the Berry street M. E. church yesterday afternoon was held the first annual meeting of the board of managers of the Door of Hope. Mrs. W. D. Page presided over the meeting. Mrs. M. R. Gerdine, matron of the home, gave an account of the work accomplished by institution, showing that twenty-five girls have been received as inmates during the year and many more cared for.

There is no more worthy cause in the city than this rescue home and none where charity begins at home in any nearer degree. The treasurer's report made acknowledgement of donations from the Woman's Relief Corps; the Working Girls' Federal union; the First Spiritual society; the F. F. club; the St. Paul's M. E. church, and the Duodecimo club. A committee to nominate the officers and members of the board of managers for the ensuing year was appointed and consisted of Mesdames Crighton, McKean, Gerdine, Stillson and Karrer. This committee will report on Friday afternoon at 3:30, at which time a meeting will be held in the Berry street M. E. church for the election of officers and board.

Martha, Mary, Grace and Anna, the children of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Chilley, of the south side, went to Chicago this morning to visit their aunt, Miss Anna Michael, a few days. The little travelers made the journey unaccompanied by any older person and arrived at their destination, where they were met by their aunt, in safety.

A Beautiful and Unique Falls.

May both be visited by excursionists routed via the Nickel Plate road. A special train will be run to the Falls leaving Fort Wayne at 1:50 p. m., July 21. Sleepers will be attached. Reservations should be made now.

UTAH'S JUBILEE.

Pioneer Day Celebration a Great Event.

Each of the 650 Survivors of the Settlement of the Valley in 1847 Are Present.

SALT LAKE, Utah, July 20.—The pioneer jubilee began today and for the remainder of the week will be witnessed one of the greatest celebrations ever seen in this inter-mountain country. Visitors have been pouring into the city and the streets are crowded. All the buildings along the principal streets have been richly decorated in many colors. At night Main street, from the Temple to Third street, is almost a solid blaze of electric light and bunting in beautiful designs hangs from one side of the street to the other. An extensive program has been arranged for the four days' entertainment.

Of the 2,000 pioneers who entered Salt Lake valley in 1847 there are only 650 survivors. These have each been presented with a gold badge valued at $10. The badge presents typical figures in the early history of Utah, including an accurate medallion portrait of President Brigham Young.

THE NOXIOUS WEEDS LAW.

A Misapprehension as to Its Provisions and Effect.

Much has been said and written of late concerning an act of the last legislature providing for the cutting down and destroying of briars, thistles, burrs, docks and other noxious weeds by owners of lands along public roads, says the Miami county Sentinel. Notwithstanding that this particular act has frequently been spoken of, it is not clearly understood by the majority of people, for without a careful reading, one is apt to place a common sense construction on it, which is the wrong construction as it happens. People generally understand that the law requires all property owners to destroy the noxious weeds growing on public highways the length of their lands, between July 1st and August 20th. Most people, by this time, are also aware that persons so employed shall be entitled to $1.25 for each day of eight hours in length so employed, which amount shall be deducted from his road tax.

Section three of this act is not so well understood and this is the portion of the act which many newspapers of the state have wrongly interpreted, and hence the farmers and others who do not have access to the acts of 1897 have been misled. In case a man neglects to cut his thistles, briars, etc., by the 20th of August the supervisor of said district shall get someone else to do it, but right here, let it be said, not at the expense of the man who failed to do his duty, as nine persons out of every ten suppose. If A is called on to cut B's weeds and it takes him a day to do it, he cannot draw on B for his pay, but simply has that amount deducted from his (A's) road tax. A must be a resident property owner of said district, otherwise the supervisor cannot employ him to destroy B's weeds. The law does not provide for the punishment of B in any manner for its violation, and hence it is a dead letter. If A has any interest in the condition of the roads proper, he will insist on being permitted to work out his road taxes in a manner that will result in most good for himself and the public in general. Instead of destroying B's weeds he will insist on improving the road bed. It will thus be seen that the road supervisor has a difficult job on his hands. He can employ no one but a property owner and if he can find no property owner in his district who is willing to cut and destroy his neighbor's weeds, the weeds will have to go on growing, that's all. The law doesn't amount to as much as the paper on which it can be written and it will not be enforced for the reason that it has nothing behind it to enforce it.

The Senate Likely to Disagree With the President.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The senate committee on immigration attempted to secure a meeting today to consider the nomination of Hon. T. V. Powderly to be commissioner of immigration but failed to obtain a quorum. The meeting developed the fact that confirmation will be opposed by some senators on the ground that Powderly's appointment is distasteful to the labor element. Another attempt will be made to take up the nomination tomorrow.

THE USES OF PAIN.

They May Be Safely Reduced as Civilization Advances.

The statement of Dr. S. Weir Mitchell, in his address on "The Birth and Death of Pain," at the Boston celebration of the semicentennial of anaesthesia, that the purpose of pain is "a riddle to which earth can give no answer," is called in question by the editor of The Hospital in a leading article. For the editor the use of pain, far from being a riddle, is so clear that he who runs may read. Pain is to the ordinary man a warning of danger. Says the editorial to which we refer:

"Here is a man with a painful broken arm. Does the pain serve any special purpose, any purpose which might not as well have been served without it? Most assuredly it does. But for the pain the average man—not, perhaps, the scientific man, but the average man—would not pay heed to his injury, would not, in fact, devote the necessary time and trouble to its perfect repair. We have to consider what the average man is for the purposes of this discussion. He is not the average modern American or modern European, tinctured with all the culture, all the science, all the high morality of the modern world. He is the typical person of no education who has made up the generations of men from the earliest times when mankind emerged from the practically brute condition into dawning moral consciousness. That is the average man to be considered when we ask what may be the purpose of pain.

"Has pain had a purpose of any kind for all those countless generations of the uncultured past who have constituted the solid mass of mankind? Most assuredly it has had a purpose—many purposes. It has compelled attention to injured structures; it has enforced rest and sleep by the distress or weariness; the taking of food by the tortures of hunger, and, in short, has been the general indicator and corrector for man and beast in the exercise of physical and physiological energy of every kind. Not only so, but the moralist and the religious teacher will unite in insisting that the educational value of pain in the regions of morals and religion has been and continues to be incalculable. So far from agreeing with Dr. Weir Mitchell that pain has no purpose in the world, we affirm that one of the most obvious of all the facts connected with pain is its definite and incalculable value, as an indicator, a corrector, an educational force, alike in the physical, the mental and the moral spheres."

This being so, an objector may say, Why interfere with pain at all? This stand was actually taken by many who held, at the time of the introduction of anaesthetics, that to use them was to fly in the face of the Almighty. But The Hospital points out that such a course would be quite illogical. It says:

"That which is essential for one period of human development may not be essential for another. The sharp physical stimuli, the clubs and spears of the early savage, are not needed by the later races of men. In earlier times hunger, thirst, fear of wounds from enemies, the most elementary of all sensations, were needed to compel even the highest races of men to do the best that was in them. In our times there are millions who work in obedience to motives altogether different from the driving forces of hunger, cold and physical fear. Ambition compels exertion, duty, mere loved work. And so the element of painfulness, being less and less needed, plays a less and less conspicuous part as a driving and correcting force in the world.

"Will pain, or the possibility of pain, ever be eliminated from the experience of man, or 'killed,' as Dr. Weir Mitchell might prefer to put it? Most probably not, so long as man is endowed with his present nervous system. But it is possible—nay, it is quite easy—to imagine a time when mankind in general shall have reached such a stage of mental capacity and culture, such a wide and masterful victory over nature, such a degree of physical vigor and material prosperity, that pain shall be a very exceptional fact in his experience. This is the goal at which a philosophical medical science must at any rate aim with all the energy of which it is capable."—Literary Digest.

Geometry.

The invention of geometry is attributed by some to the Assyrians or Chaldean philosophers, by others to the Egyptians. Geometry was brought into Greece by Thales in 600 B. C. The study was greatly improved by Pythagoras and was brought to perfection by Euclid, 300 B. C. The researches of Archimedes were made in the third century before Christ.

FIREMEN MEET.

The Brotherhood Opens a Three Days' Session.

Grain Cars Being Rushed to Kansas to Move the Wheat Crop—Affairs at the Shops.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen begin a three days meeting in Cincinnati today. This meeting will have a collateral attendance of the kindred brotherhood and order of railway engineers, conductors, switchmen and trainmen. Today will be spent socially at the Lagoon, where the officials of all lines centering at Cincinnati will meet them. Tomorrow (Wednesday) will be the strictly business day. All proceedings will be in executive session. Thursday, the last day, will be given up to excursions at will about the city.

SHOPMEN ON FULL TIME.

The force of men in the tin department of the Burlington shops in St. Joseph, Mo., have begun working ten hours a day and all employes of that company are now working full time, for the first time in several years. The force has also been increased in all departments. A great rush of work necessitated the increase in hours and number of employes.

GETTING READY FOR BUSINESS.

Telegrams from Kansas City state that long trains of empty box cars have been rolling out of that metropolis for two weeks and dropped off in twos, threes and fives on side tracks along the lines of the railroads in Missouri, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska and Oklahoma. These empty freight cars, of which there are thousands, will be filled with new 1897 wheat inside of four or five weeks. A tremendous grain rush is expected, and the best of management by railroad officials will be needed to prevent a huge grain blockade or a grain car famine. Conservative estimates of crop statisticians place the yield of wheat for this year in Kansas alone at 60,000,000 bushels.

AN ALASKA EXPEDITION.

At the request of several people who wish to make the trip, Col. R. H. Thompson has undertaken the task of getting up a party for Alaska. It is proposed to get ten men who are willing to go out there and engage in gold mining, and with that end in view Colonel Thompson is now in communication with western connecting lines regarding rates and hopes to be able to give accurate figures on the cost of such a journey in a few days. As near as it is possible to estimate the cost of transportation to Sitka, one way, Mr. Thompson places it at about $90. He is in receipt of letters from parties living in Kendallville, Auburn and several other towns in this vicinity concerning the proposed expedition and believes that he will have no trouble in securing the requisite number of excursionists when he is able to give some accurate estimate of the cost of the trip.

MINOR MENTION.

Nickel Plate Brakeman L. Schoonover is sick and off duty.

A big party left, over the Wabash, today for points in Kansas.

Pittsburg Passenger Engineer F. H. Keegan is on the sick list.

Nickel Plate Engineer D. F. McFee is off duty on account of sickness.

Blacksmith Michael Haas, of the Pittsburg shops, is sick and unable to work.

W. S. Parry, a bill clerk at the Wabash freight office, is sick and off duty.

Superintendent C. D. Law is in Chicago today, looking after railway business.

It is rumored on the streets that one of the best known of the Nickel Plate passenger engineers had resigned and would remove to Pennsylvania. As the reporter was unable to get a denial or confirmation of the report, we refrain from publishing the name.

The Grand Rapids puts its assembly train into service this evening. It will leave this city at 5:45 every day.

E. J. Hawthorne will leave tomorrow for California. He was formerly employed by the Electric corporation.

Henry Mennewisch has recovered from an illness and this morning took his old place in the Bass blacksmith shop.

Fireman H. E. Wagner, of the Pittsburg, and Mrs. Wagner and their son, are visiting friends in Decatur, Ind.

Fireman and Mrs. George Ek will go to Chicago in a few days to visit friends a short time. Mr. Ek is employed by the Pennsylvania.

Messrs Bysell and Zent have opened a factory on Fairfield avenue for the manufacture of children's swings. They will employ several men.

M. Miller resigned a position in the Pittsburg machine shop this morning. It is not known what occupation he will engage in in the future.

F. Lindeman, who was sick over a month, resumed his place in the Pittsburg round house this morning. He is gang foreman of the wipers.

Mileage books of the Toledo and Ohio Central have been counterfeited, and it is thought that a large amount of this fraudulent mileage is on the market.

The Pittsburg division of the Order of Railway Telegraphers still leads all other divisions in point of numbers and is steadily increasing in its membership.

John Lease, a Pittsburg engineer, with his wife and mother, left this morning for Cadillac, Mich., where the engineer will spend a week in hunting and fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Carter and daughter went to Valparaiso this morning to attend the funeral of a relative. Mr. Carter is a well known locomotive engineer.

During the month of June 771 men received benefits from the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief association and for this purpose it required an expenditure of $17,831.10.

S. F. Bowser left this morning for Chicago and thence to Cairo, Ill., in the interest of the oil tank firm, of which he is the head. A. Z. Polhamus is in St. Louis on a similar mission.

Frank Ruch, a steamfitter, who was sick, and John Collins, a tinner, who had been looking after private business, resumed their respective duties in the Pittsburg shops this morning.

William S. Hulse, the electrician, who is in Europe, yesterday cabled his father, the well known Pittsburg machinist, of his safe arrival at Berlin, Germany, yesterday morning.

Brakeman O. Spayd and C. J. Smith have resumed their positions on the Nickel Plate after a few days absence. Mr. Smith has been looking after Fred Boltz, jr., who is dangerously ill.

J. W. Nate, secretary and general manager of the St. Louis Car Wheel works, a branch of the Bass Foundry and Machine works, was in the city today on business connected with his office.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hall and son, relatives of Clerk L. G. Dailey, of the Pennsylvania offices, have returned to their home in Findlay after a visit here and at Wabash. Mr. Hall is a contractor.

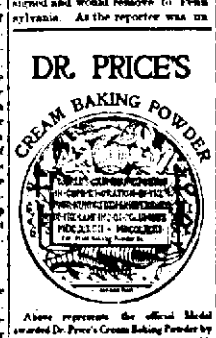

John Sobold, of the Bass blacksmith shop, was called to the country yesterday by a message stating that his father was dying. The elder Sobold is one of Adams township's prominent farmers.

L. G. Dailey resumed his place at the desk in Master Car Builder Graham's office at the Pittsburg shops this morning. He had been enjoying a summer vacation, which he spent with relatives at Wabash.

The passenger department of the Toledo, St. Louis and Kansas City is beginning to boast of fast runs. Last week a train of eight coaches, well filled with passengers, was hauled from Decatur to Ohio City, eighteen miles, in nineteen minutes.

The most trying work on passenger men the present season is now about over. Many of the excursions have been run, nearly all that are to be run this season have been arranged for, and the passenger officials are arranging for their summer vacation.

Wash Frase, the Nickel Plate Engineer who had his eyes injured six weeks ago by glass, has recovered and yesterday reported for duty. One night, while out on his run, some missile struck and shattered his cab window and the pieces of glass flew into his face and eyes.

C. Bronnelmeir, the well known Nickel Plate engineer, has been granted a month's leave of absence, which he will spend with relatives in the eastern states. Last evening, in company with his wife, he left for Cleveland and thence he will go to Buffalo, where he has brothers and sisters living.

Two Holman friction-geared locomotives have arrived at Cape May and will this week be tested on the South Jersey railroad. They were built at the Baldwin Locomotive works and stand sixteen feet high on the track. They are expected to reach a speed of 100 miles an hour with five or six cars.

St. Louis has a prosperous branch of the Young Men's Christian association, and it has arranged to furnish good meals for railroad employes at fifteen cents and lodging at ten cents. Trainmen will be called at any hour they wish, and everything will be done to make the branch comfortable and attractive.

The Lafayette, Logansport and Peru papers of yesterday contained very complimentary notices of the manner in which the excursionists to Robison park were treated last Sunday. The Wabash company also came in for a share of the praise, it handling the immense crowd in an excellent manner and without a single accident.

The Wisconsin supreme court has ruled that it is the duty of a railroad which sells a passenger ticket to a place on its line, and also a sleeping car ticket to an intermediate point where the passenger is required to change cars, to awaken a passenger a sufficient time before reaching the point to allow him to dress and prepare to make the change.

S. M. Foster sustained a loss of between $1,200 and $1,500 Sunday night by the bursting of the pipes which compose the automatic sprinkling system in his waist factory. The damage consisted of soaking a lot of goods which were piled up in the factory. A similar accident happened in that establishment some time ago, but the damage was not so great.

The Pennsylvania and the Nickel Plate roads announce a one fare rate, $4.45, to Chicago and return, next Thursday, the date of the dedication of the Logan monument. The number of inquiries being made by telephone and otherwise indicates a great interest in the event and the companies named expect to take many Fort Wayne people to the Windy City on that date.

Some of Pottlitzer Brothers' employes, who were engaged in loading some fruit into wagons at the Wabash depot this morning, left a hand truck, upon which there were 100 boxes of raspberries, too near the tracks and when passenger train No. 5 came in, the engine struck the vehicle, upsetting it and destroying twenty four of the boxes and scattering their contents over the platform.

An attempt was made Saturday night to wreck the Wabash railroad pay car near Fairbury, Ill. The car was going over the Chicago division following the regular north bound passenger train. The engine of the latter struck a pile of rails and ties on the track three miles east of Fairbury and was disabled, in spite of the engineer noticing the wreckage in time to come to a sudden stop. No one was injured.

William J. Wood, the manager of the local branch of the Standard wheel works, has returned from Lexington, Ind., where he was called a few days ago by a message stating that his father was very ill. The old gentleman, who is quite feeble from the infirmities of age, had suffered a stroke of paralysis and the family thought that he was going to die last week, but he survived the attack and is now slowly improving.

There were two sections of Nickel Plate train No. 5 last evening, the second section having on board nearly two hundred ladies who were bound for Chicago, where they will attend a meeting of the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent society, to be held this week. Fifty of the ladies dined at the Nickel Plate restaurant and the balance of them were supplied with a light lunch there. The scene recalled world's fair days.

H. C. Zook, who recently succeeded N. W. Thompson as superintendent of bridges and buildings on the western division of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago road, is today preparing to ship his household goods with a view of making this city his future home. He has secured a comfortable house on Dawson street. For many years Mr. Zook has been a resident of Valparaiso, being formerly the foreman of the bridge gang which has headquarters in that city.

The Pennsylvania's policemen made two important arrests at Lima, Ohio, this morning. Now and then the company has been annoyed by thieves, who operate in and about Lima by jacking up cars and removing the brass journal boxes, which they sell to junk dealers at a fair price. Yesterday the detectives got a clew to the thieves and following it up, they were enabled to land their men in the calaboose and brass stealing in that neighborhood is likely to cease for awhile.

Tonight the Pennsylvania will have excursion trains out of Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Louisville for northern Michigan points. At 9 o'clock this morning word was received here that sleeping accommodations had been engaged for nine cars and that possibly two or three more sleepers would be required to handle the business. At the hour named it was impossible to make an accurate estimate of the number of excursionists who would not take sleepers, but enough was learned to warrant the company in preparing to carry 1,200 or 1,500 people. Three and possibly four trains will be run over the Grand Rapids line for this purpose.

The Huntington Driving club will give three days' racing matinees at the Huntington fair grounds, August 18, 19 and 20. Some of the best horses in the country are expected and as there will be no county fair in Huntington this season, the probabilities are that the races will be largely attended. The Huntington county fair has always been a big advertisement for that county and it is a wonder that a season would be allowed to pass without a fair week.

Mrs. M. E. Woolward has been called to St. Louis by the serious illness of her son, Edward, who was overcome by heat there a week ago.

HIRONS' VEGETONE.

It can be Procured at Your Druggists.

The Hirons Double Treatment for Catarrh and Hay Fever.

The Hirons New Asthma and Cough Cure for Asthma, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, Coughs, Colds, Throat and Lung Troubles.

Vegetone is purely vegetable in its composition. It is a reliable and permanent cure for diseases of the liver and kidneys, constipation, chills, malarial fever, loss of appetite, and a sure and effectual cure for headache and dyspepsia.

Vegetone acts by giving tone to the stomach, strengthening the liver and kidneys, and assists these most important organs in throwing off the impurities in the blood. Every person, in the spring of the year, needs a good, safe tonic for the replenishing of the system after a winter of inactivity and Vegetone will produce the desired effects, being purely vegetable and a mild, pleasant laxative, thus throwing off the bile from the stomach, producing new vigor.

CATARRH.

One of the most troublesome and dangerous diseases known to mankind, can in the large majority of cases, be permanently cured. Many who were victims to that disease have been cured, and many more are being cured. Double treatment for Catarrh does its work effectually; clearing it out of the head, driving it out of the blood, where it exists, and ever will exist, unless the health destroying virus is eradicated from the system. Cure it. For it is not only a constant discomfort, but a perpetual menace to life. Use the New Asthma and Cough Cure as the blood purifier, and the Speedy Catarrh Cure for the nasal treatment for Catarrh and soon those troublesome and distressing symptoms will disappear. The constant dripping of the mucous into the throat, and the pain in the head will cease. The hearing, sight, smell, and taste will be restored.

HAY FEVER.

Hay Fever, or Hay Asthma as it is often called, is a combination of Bronchial and Nasal affections. The immediate cause and source of irritation being of external origin, attacking individuals during the months of May, June and August. The pollen of hay, dried grasses and rag weed comes in contact with the nasal and bronchial membranes, involving all the air passages, causing immediate irritation, frequently disabling persons afflicted therewith. The great discomfort and suffering, say nothing of the the loss of life caused by this terrible disease, may be avoided by using Hirons' Double Treatment, which is a sure, safe and permanent cure. Commence using the medicine at once, and get your system in condition to resist the effect of these agencies upon the mucous membrane, thereby keeping the tissues in a healthy condition.

"La Grippe Cough Cured."

Hirons Medicine Co., Room 3 Schmitz Block, Fort Wayne, Ind.:

DEAR SIRS:—I had a severe case of La Grippe some time ago and suffered with a terrible cough until I tried a bottle of your New Asthma and Cough Cure. I used only one bottle of the medicine and it cured me entirely. I have had no cough since.

(Signed)

MRS. CHARLES C. ADAMS.

Testimonial From Ex-Judge of the Superior Court of Allen County.

Hirons Medicine Co., Room 3, Schmitz Block, City:

Having been a great sufferer from that most distressing disease, asthma, and having used your Asthma Remedy for the last four months, I can certify very cheerfully, that it has afforded me great relief, and I feel confident that in the majority of cases, will accomplish a permanent cure.

Respectfully yours,
A. A. CHAPIN.

Believes It Saved Her Life.

The Hirons Medicine Co.

GENTLEMEN:—I wish to tell you how thankful we are for the great good your medicine has done for our daughter, Mrs. John Metcalf. We sincerely believe that it saved her life. In November she had a bad case of LaGrippe, it left her with an awful cough. Our family physician informed her husband that she was threatened with consumption. We knew not what course to pursue, until one day when Mrs. Metcalf was reading your advertisement in the WEEKLY SENTINEL she resolved to try a bottle of your new Asthma and Cough Cure. After using the remedy for a short time she was able to sit up in bed. In two weeks she was up and around. Her cough ceased, and now she is entirely cured, and advises all who have lung or throat trouble to give your medicine a trial.

Yours Truly,
SAMUEL DISHER.
CEDARVILLE P. O., Ind.

What the Resident Manager of the Chicago Newspaper Union Has to Say.

The Hirons Medicine Co., Fort Wayne, Ind.

GENTLEMEN:—Your Mr. A. R. Hirons persuaded me to give your Double Treatment for catarrh a trial, and after having used it about 20 days, I can honestly say that the results have been very satisfactory. I have been a sufferer from the disease since childhood, and was so bad at times that the membrane would bleed constantly. By the use of your medicine I have stopped the bleeding, my head is greatly relieved, and I have no more difficulty with my breathing.

Yours truly,
CHARLES D. TILLS.

A Hay-fever Victim Made Happy.

The Hirons Medicine Co., Fort Wayne, Ind.

GENTLEMEN:—I have been afflicted with Hay Fever in its most malignant form for years. The first attack would appear in June. During August and September my sufferings were intense. Water would run from my eyes and nose, the paroxysms of sneezing were uncontrollable, and I had terrible burning pains in my head. I learned of your Double Treatment for Catarrh and Hay Fever and procured it at once. After having used three bottles of the remedies I was entirely cured. I heartily endorse your valuable medicine, and advise all Hay Fever sufferers to give it a trial.

Signed,
ANDREW LECKY, 373 Hanna St.,

"Where the road turns to the left at Grand View, walk out over the salient of rock at the angle itself, sit down on the farthest chimney shaft, over rocks naturally white, but now blackened by weathering. If possible, go there in the morning or in the latter part of the afternoon. At noontime the light is too strong, and the details of the canyon are smothered, and the individuality of the walls killed. But with a soft morning or afternoon light every detail of one or the other of the walls leaps out from the general mass as if instinct with life. And what a wonderful sea it is that lies beneath and beyond us. A painted sea, not of water but of rock. And such painting! Try to distinguish the decided colors and their infinite variations. The most wonderful part of it is the rare blending, where one fades into another, and yet thou canst detect neither the beginning nor the ending."

Cooke was not in the game at Wheeling yesterday and as Herr was hit hard at critical moments the Nailers did not have much trouble beating the Marooms. Robison had on his batting clothes and made two home runs when they counted. There was a fair sized crowd out to see the game. The loss of this game puts Fort Wayne two points below Youngstown.

$1,800 FOR HICKMAN.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., July 20.—Manager Seeley, of the Boston base ball club, has been in New Castle since Saturday afternoon and last evening, after much dickering, Charley Hickman, the star twirler of the Inter State league, was sold to Boston for $1,800. Hickman and Seeley left for Cincinnati to join the team within ten minutes after the deal was made.

BATTING AVERAGES.

THE SENTINEL presents the batting averages of the eight every-day players and it will be seen that all except Fitch have been batting above .325. Cooke leads in base hits, but McKevitt and O'Meara are a little ahead in per centage. No other team in the Inter State can present seven batters with an average so nearly equal. Here they are:

	G.	A.B.	H.	P.C.
O'Meara	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]

TEMPLE SERIES.

The New Castle News believes that the Inter State league is as good as any of the so-called minor leagues, and is out with a sound proposition which is contained in the following paragraph:

"It is generally believed that the Inter State is as strong a minor league as there is in the country. It began the season with a lot of very fast players and all the clubs have strengthened until some of the best teams in the organization are now playing games that cannot be equaled outside of the National league, and better even than some of the weaker clubs in the big organization. The Inter State has become so fast that cast offs from the National league who become members of the Inter State are not stars in this organization, as their playing seems weak by contrast with that of many other of the young and ambitious players in the Inter State. In view of these facts all base ball fans would be interested in seeing the comparative merits of the clubs of the leading minor leagues put to a test. Would it not be a good thing at the end of the season for the winners of the pennant in each of these leagues to play a series of games to see which is the superior. Such a series of contests could be easily arranged and the games would undoubtedly attract a very large attendance, and therefore be great moneymakers. The champion team from the Inter-state, the Eastern league, Western league, Atlantic league and other of the leading minor organizations would take part in the contest. The project is at least worthy of consideration."

NOTES.

Stahl keeps hitting the ball. Yesterday he made three hits, one a two-bagger.

The Spy Runs play at Huntington next Friday.

Now that Hickman has been sold New Castle will not be in the race.

Pitcher Treadwell has been released by Springfield, and Pitcher Harper, of Marion, Ohio, has joined the team.

Manager Wheeler, of Springfield, yesterday signed Josh Reilly, of Indianapolis. Reilly is one of the swiftest infielders in the business and played with the Chicago league team last year and this year has been playing with Kansas City and Indianapolis, but the latter place has more infielders than they can use at present and were willing to let him go.

Hanlon's cold bloodedness in dealing with players is, perhaps, the secret of his superiority over Tebeau. Hanlon has no sentiment at all about the matter. A ball player is a piece of money-making machinery to him, that worn out is thrown aside as useless. Tebeau is loth to part with any player with whom he has been long associated.

As Jim Corbett's terms are 50 per cent. of the gross for every game he plays, it is not to be wondered that his earnings thus far out of base ball this year have been fully $3,000. Yes, and the Boston ball players would be glad of it were $10,000. When Charley Bennett had his benefit in this city Jim Corbett came from Buffalo at great inconvenience to himself, to be present, paid all his own expenses while traveling and in this city, and contributed $50 in cash. Jim Corbett didn't do this for notoriety, and, although this happened four years ago, very few, indeed, were made aware of it before this writing.—Boston Herald.

Miss Alice Barr, of Bluffton, and Miss Genevieve Hogan, of this city, returned last evening from a short visit with Miss Edith Keegan, of Grand Rapids. Miss Barr will be the guest of Miss Hogan for a short time.

WHY

Do so many people take our VITALIZED AIR to have teeth extracted.

BECAUSE

It is painless. It does not make you sick.
It is harmless. It is a gem.
It is pleasant to take. It is wonderful.
It makes you happy. It is used only by us.
We manufacture it ourselves.

A Set of the best teeth only $8.00.

No dentist can make you a better set than these, no matter what you pay for them.
